WELLS MAY BOX M'FARLAND AT FAIRMONT A. C.

Briton's Bout With Wolgast May Be called Off Because of Latter's Deand vermin and of irrigation work.

The motive back of the inquiries is to make the Largishman and informed him that if he would meet McFarland at the Fairmont A. C. the gross receipts would amount to at least $20,000 of which Wells could have a certain percentage. At first Wells's manager demanded $12,500 for his end, but Gibson ridiculed the proposition and declared that McFarland, not Wells, was the real drawing card. Then he informed the informed the linglishman's manager that if he would let McFarland have $8,000 of the money he could take the balance, less the legitimate expenses and the State tax. Unless Wolgast changes his attitude toward the Madison A. C. within the next twenty-four hours it seems probable that Wells will decide to sidetrack him in favor of McFarland. Incidentally Wolgast doesn't seem anxious to hox McFarland under reasonable to sidetrack him in favor of McFarland. Incidentally Wolgast doesn't seem anxious to hox McFarland under reasonable to sidetrack him in favor of McFarland with the match the state of the inquiries is to a make the legitimate contains the first of a patch of a national handicap list stage. As the U.S. G. A. does not run off any handicap, the value of the ratings can only be to limit the starters in the amateur championships. This brings up the question of the green department of the state of the money has a cartain percentage. At the state of the match the state of the money had been definite knowledge as to the state of the match that the lack of a reliable proposition and the state of the match that the state of the

But with the ossible exception of Well's he finds it hard a secure matches with K. O. Brown, Wolgast reddie Weish, Tommy Murphy or any other ignitively in the before the public. Brown classes to box Packy except at ringside weight, while Welsh admits that he wouldn't ave a chance to win, scaling 133 at 30 clock, well's hest weight is 135 at 2 or 3 o'clock, well's hest weight is 135 at 2 or 3 o'clock, and as McFarland is ready to take him on inder those conditions it may be awkard for the Englishman to refuse to box.

McFarland is far and away the most scientific man of his weight and inches in the ring at the present time. He is extensive popular with New York boxing fans, who commend him for his clean business methods and sportsmanlike ring tacties. As a drawing card he outclasses the other lightweights and has a right to dicties for skating and every comfort for the votaries of the sport. The interior of the building, the walls and supporting girders, have been newly painted in a harmonious blending of ecru and dark green, a restful combination of colors in contrast with the shirmmering ice which covers the surface of the rink at any time this season on account of soft ice due to defective pipes and machinery.
